

Evraz Summer Paid Internship Summer Program For Undergraduates

Description

Evraz is a leading global steel and mining company, and we are seeking a dedicated and experienced Production Supervisor to join our team. The Production Supervisor will play a key role in overseeing the manufacturing process, ensuring efficiency, quality, and safety standards are met. If you are a motivated leader with a strong background in production, we encourage you to apply and become a part of our dynamic team.

Responsibilities

- Supervision: Oversee and manage a team of production workers, ensuring they adhere to safety protocols, production schedules, and quality standards.
- Production Monitoring: Monitor and track production metrics, including output, quality, and efficiency, and make necessary adjustments to meet targets.
- Process Improvement: Identify and implement process improvements to enhance productivity, reduce waste, and optimize resource utilization.
- Quality Assurance: Ensure that products meet quality standards and conduct inspections to identify and address any defects or non-conformities.
- Safety Compliance: Promote a culture of safety, conduct safety meetings, and ensure compliance with all safety regulations and protocols.
- Training: Provide training and development opportunities to team members, helping them acquire necessary skills and knowledge.
- Documentation: Maintain accurate production records, reports, and documentation.
- Communication: Collaborate with other departments, such as maintenance and logistics, to ensure smooth production flow and timely deliveries.
