Description

Are you a driven and passionate individual with a keen interest in public policy and social media? Then, the Instagram Internships Summer 2023 for Youth Public Policy Managers in Lancaster is your opportunity to take your career to the next level! This internship program offers a dynamic and challenging environment for young professionals to develop their skills and contribute to the community.

Responsibilities

As a Youth Public Policy Manager, you will be responsible for managing Instagram's public policy initiatives in Lancaster. Your tasks will include researching and analyzing public policy issues, developing strategies and recommendations, building relationships with stakeholders, and advocating for Instagram's policy positions. You will also be responsible for monitoring and reporting on policy developments and trends that affect Instagram's business.

Qualifications

To be eligible for this internship, you must be currently enrolled in a Bachelor's or Master's degree program in Public Policy, Communications, or a related field. You should have a strong interest in public policy and social media, and a solid understanding of policy issues and trends. You must also possess excellent analytical, communication, and interpersonal skills, and be able to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.

Job Benefits

This internship program provides a unique opportunity for young professionals to gain hands-on experience in public policy and social media. You will have the chance to work with a team of experts in the field, learn about Instagram's policies and operations, and make valuable contributions to the company's mission. You will also receive a competitive salary, professional development opportunities, and access to Instagram's benefits and resources.
