Internship Opportunity with Sodexo for Undergraduates

Description

Sodexo is a global leader in quality-of-life services, providing innovative solutions to millions of customers around the world. Based in Issy-les-Moulineaux, France, Sodexo offers a dynamic and unique internship program that provides students with hands-on experience in the hospitality and facilities management industry. Here is a closer look at what the program entails:

The Sodexo internship program is designed to provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the hospitality and facilities management industry. Interns will work alongside industry professionals and gain experience in areas such as food service management, facilities management, and client relations.

Responsibilities

Interns will be responsible for a range of tasks, including assisting with daily operations, managing budgets, and coordinating events. They will work with cross-functional teams to ensure that Sodexo's high standards are met and will have the opportunity to participate in special projects.

Qualifications

To be eligible for an internship at Sodexo, candidates must be currently enrolled in a college or university program and have a strong interest in the hospitality and facilities management industry. They should possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, as well as a strong attention to detail.

Experience

While prior experience is not required, candidates with previous internships or coursework in hospitality, facilities management, or related fields will be given preference. Additionally, candidates who are familiar with software such as Microsoft Office or project management tools will have an advantage.

Skills

Sodexo values interns who are innovative, adaptable, and self-motivated. They should be able to work independently and as part of a team, and possess strong problem-solving skills. They should also be comfortable working in a fast-paced environment and have a willingness to learn.

Job Benefits

In addition to gaining valuable industry experience, interns will receive a competitive salary and have the opportunity to network with industry professionals. They will also have access to Sodexo's employee benefits program and participate in company events and outings.

Contacts

Interested candidates can apply for the Sodexo internship program through their career website. They can also reach out to their university's career services office for more information.
